Comment by FullElvenBefore you attempt this quest, please think twice about just rushing headlong into the center of Suramar to begin killing things.. You'll be transformed into someone that is far easier to roam around with it was a long few corpse runs You'll get a quest eventually that asks you to basically do a Masquerade party there.. 1) They hurt 2) Not every Nightfallen you kill can be used for this quest Learn from my mistakes.. Wait until your permanent Masquerade buff (not the one from the mask) to do this.
